

The Loyal Baptist :

OR AN

A P O L O G Y

FOR THE

BAPTIZED BELIEVERS.

CONTAINING

- I. His humble Resolution to be a constant Conformist to the Scriptures, and especially in these four great Duties, viz.
- | | |
|-----------------------------|------------------------|
| 1. To Honour all Men. | 3. To fear God. |
| 2. To Love the Brotherhood. | 4. To Honour the King. |

According to 1 Peter 2. 17.

II. His unfeigned endeavour for Unity in the Truth with the Church of England; wherein is shewed what necessitates a distinction in Communion between the Parochial Assembly and those of the Baptized Believers: Wherein fourteen Arguments lately published by Mr. N. T. M. A. in defence of Infant-Baptism are considered, and answered.

III. His Plea for Church-Assemblies to be permitted to the Baptized Believers.

To which purpose is declared,

IV. The Nature of his Call to Christianity, and to the work of the Ministry.

OCCASIONED

By the great and long continued Sufferings of the Baptized Believers in this Nation.

By THOMAS GRANTHAM, a Servant of Christ.

Job 21. 4. As for me, is my complaint to Man? And if it were so, why should not my Spirit be troubled?

Causabon's Birth of Heresy, c. 3. p. 11. In all Ages Men have never been contented with the true Adoration instituted by God: But instead of external Signs instituted by God, --- they have forged and brought in their own Inventions.
